

December 2017 Newsletter

Hi Everyone,

We have just one week to go before we close over the Christmas / New Year break and open again on 8th January 2018. I'm intending to park myself at the beach to enjoy some sunshine and surf. I hope you also have a great holiday time with family and friends.

And before Christmas arrives we will be celebrating Nick's 21st birthday. In turn, this means we will not be open on 23rd December as Tim and I cook up a storm for the family.

2018 Clubs

Autumn Beginner Sewist Club 2018

Are you a beginner sewist, owning a Bernina or a Bernette sewing machine? This club is a great start to learn your machine while creating projects from a provided selection. Learn basic sewing techniques while you also get to know your machine. You will choose which project or projects to be working on from approx. 12 options to suit your tastes, while learning techniques on your machine. Club cost is $76 ($10 per lesson + Bernina Inspirations), + project requirements. You will also receive a 10% discount on your project requirements during the Club.

You will have the choice of a club on either:

fortnightly Tuesday mornings beginning February 27th until 8th May; 10am till midday;

OR

fortnightly Thursday evenings beginning March 1st until 10th May; 5:30pm till 7:30pm

Minimum numbers required for each club to proceed is 6, Maximum number 10

Autumn Confident Sewist Club 2018

Workshop News

Nick is enjoying a well-deserved break during January and returns to the workshop 30th January 2018

Nick's Tip from the Workshop

Beware people entering your machine without ESD protection as this can easily harm the electronic / computerisation of your machine. Also, anyone without Bernina certification entering your machine voids your warranty

Christmas Projects and Gifts

Kits of projects for you to complete or give as a gift for someone else to stitch. There is also a range of non-Christmas theme stitcheries which will make wonderful gifts too

St John's Church Festival of Christmas Trees
